

From the N. Y. Daily News.
British Aggression—Excitement in Havana, British Officer Arrested by Order of his Superior.

The excitement in reference to the outrages committed in the Gulf by the British naval forces, is not confined to the United States. The British flag is everywhere, and the most serious consequences are apprehended to grow out of it.

The British officer arrested and reported (by Telegraph) to be sent to Jamaica for trial, is stated to be the officer who "visited" the American vessels in the harbor of Sagua la Grande—the cause being, so it is added, "exceeding his instructions."

It was this officer, too, probably, who landed British marines upon the island thereabout, to hunt up Bozal negroes just landed there from an American built vessel.

The British Consul is reported to have made to the Captain General all sorts of apologies, which, however, the Captain General has not accepted, but on the contrary, he has referred them to Madrid.

There is the general impression of passengers on board the Calabuya, and of Americans and others in Havana, that the course pursued by the British and the officer at Sagua la Grande met with the strongest condemnation from his superior, and it was generally thought he would be broken.

Another report is that intelligence of the visits to and searching of American vessels by British cruisers was still continued, although the vessels now about the harbor of Matanzas and to the eastward have received instructions to be a very little more polite and not to shoot their guns. It is well understood that the force of arrest of the officer who was ordered to visit and search American shipping in Sagua la Grande, is only a cover to get out of a bad scrape. All the cases that occur of aggression are not reported at the U. S. Consulate as they should be.

There is some sickness among the shipping, but the city is perfectly healthy.

ELECTRIC OIL—ELECTRIC OIL.
Many respectable dealers, in various parts of the country, have been duly authorized to sell the genuine "Electric Oil," with the signatures of De Grath & Co., of Philadelphia, and such dealers are making more on sales than the proprietors are, because it is an expensive remedy to make.

The price, however, is invariably to the trade.
P. S.—Professor De Grath, of Philadelphia, has just received a letter from a nephew in the country, detailing his wonderful cures by a single bottle, which they had sent him. He kindly permitted its publication. Look out for fraud.

Only One, No. 39 South Eighth Street, near Chestnut St., Philadelphia, directly across the street from the City Hall, is the only place where the bottles and the bottles are sold.

See the written signature, Prof. De Grath, and the name blown in the bottle. "Prof. De Grath." All others to imitate is forgery.

THE "ELIXIR."
Prepared by Dr. James Williams for the cure of Dyspepsia, and nothing but Dyspepsia, (as advertised in another column), has, by its own merits obtained for itself so high a reputation in Philadelphia, that Physicians, acquainted with its properties are using it themselves and prescribing it to their patients, convinced by observation of its great power restoring the disordered digestive organs to healthy function.

Numerous cases of Dyspepsia of the most aggravated character, which were abandoned as incurable by some of the Medical Faculty, have, by the use of this "Elixir" alone, been restored to perfect health, as attached certificates testify.
